BENCOR FICA Alternative Plan Overview

The BENCOR 401(a) FICA Alternative Plan (Plan) is a qualified retirement plan under Federal tax law that covers part-time, seasonal and temporary employees of the District who are not covered by the Florida Retirement System. The Plan provides an alternative benefit to Social Security and exempts you from FICA (Social Security) payroll taxes. You continue to pay Medicare taxes on your wages. Enrollment in the Plan is automatic for every employee who works in a position covered by the Plan.

How much is contributed? You contribute 7.5% of your wages on a pre-tax basis (for income tax purposes) instead of paying Social Security taxes that otherwise would be determined and paid by you on an after-tax basis. You will see your Plan contribution amount reflected on your paycheck stub. Contributions are credited to an individual account in your name under the Plan.

What should I do to set up my account? Your employer establishes your Plan account for you. Once your account is created, you should log on to your account to:

- 1) select your statement delivery preference (electronic/paper) under Statements/Forms; and
- 2) designate the person(s) who should receive the funds in your account in the event of your death by using the Beneficiaries link under the gear icon.

How is my account invested? The Plan offers different investment options in which you may choose to invest amounts contributed to your account. If you do not choose investment options, your account will be invested automatically in your plan's default option, which may or may not be the best option for your particular circumstances. Therefore, it is very important for you to log on to your account at www.bencorplans.com as soon as possible to obtain information about all the available investments and choose the options that are appropriate for your own objectives and preferences.

Can I withdraw my account? Your account is always 100% vested and belongs only to you. The balance of your account will be available after your termination of employment, retirement or total disability. In the case of your death, the beneficiary or beneficiaries you name under the Plan will be able to withdraw your account balance. Funds may be withdrawn as a lump sum cash distribution, which is taxable for the year of withdrawal, or as a direct rollover to an IRA or eligible retirement plan, which defers your income tax obligation. To request a withdrawal, log on to your account at www.bencorplans.com and submit your request electronically or download a Distribution Request Form. Additional information about income taxes and rollovers is provided online and with the form.

Your account is subject to the IRS Required Minimum Distribution rules after you reach age 70 ½ (age 72 for participants who reach age 70 ½ after 12/31/19) or retire, whichever is later, or following your death, if earlier.

Individuals who are "active participants" for the year in certain tax-advantaged retirement plans, such as this FICA Alternative Plan, are subject to federal tax law limitations on deducting contributions for the same year to an IRA account. These limitations also may affect a spouse's IRA deductions. Consult an independent tax advisor if you wish to take federal income tax deductions for contributions to an IRA.

Will I receive statements? Annual statements showing your account activity and ending balance are provided after the close of each calendar year.

Are there any fees? There are no administrative fees charged to your account unless your balance is less than $1,000 and no contributions have been made to your account for more than two years. At that time, if you do not elect a distribution, a monthly maintenance fee will apply.

How can I get more information? To log on to your account for plan and account information, go to www.bencorplans.com. Enter your User ID and Password, select Participant from the drop down and Login. After logging on, select Support from the menu to chat with a BENCOR Customer Service Representative, or dial a BENCOR Customer Service Representative at 866-296-9712. Representatives are available Monday – Friday, 9:00 a.m. through 6:00 p.m., Eastern Time.

WORKING AFTER RETIREMENT

For FRS Pension Plan

Florida Retirement System

Reemployment Rules for Pension Plan Members

Returning to work with an FRS-participating employer too soon after retirement could be a costly mistake. Read this brief flyer to be sure you don't shortchange yourself in retirement.

What You Need to Know

Once you become a Pension Plan retiree:

- You will not be able to rejoin the FRS — even if you return to work with an FRS-participating employer.
- If you return to work with an FRS-participating employer before satisfying a waiting period, your retirement may be voided and you may have to repay all benefits you have received, including any Deferred Retirement Option Program (DROP) payout.

When do I become a Pension Plan retiree?

You become a Pension Plan retiree once you have terminated employment with all FRS-participating employers, established an effective retirement date through the application process, and cashed or deposited a benefit payment (including direct deposit). You are considered retired as of your effective retirement date. If you participate in the DROP, your effective retirement date is your DROP begin date. The termination and reemployment limitations apply to you beginning the calendar month after your termination date.

Caution!

The reemployment laws are very complex, and returning to work for an FRS-participating employer after you've retired may have significant financial consequences.

So, before retiring or returning to work for an FRS-participating employer, we strongly recommend you call the Division of Retirement at 1-866-446-9377, Option 3.

Questions?

Once you are a Pension Plan retiree, be sure you understand the impact of returning to employment with an FRS-participating employer before choosing to do so. If you have questions, call the Division of Retirement at 1-866-446-9377, Option 3 (TRS 711) or 1-844-377-1888, available 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. ET, Monday through Friday, except holidays.

When can a Pension Plan retiree return to work with an FRS-participating employer?

You can return to work with an FRS-participating employer at any time; however, returning within 12 calendar months of becoming a Pension Plan retiree may void your retirement and require you to repay retirement benefits received, as described below.

If you are a Pension Plan retiree and return to work ¹ with an FRS-participating employer:
Within 6 Calendar Months	Your retirement will be voided and you will be required to repay all the Pension Plan benefits you have received, including any DROP payout.
During Calendar Months 7 to 12	Your Pension Plan benefits will be suspended for each month you are employed during this period (you must notify the Division of Retirement of your employment). ² If your benefits are not timely suspended, you and your employer will be required to repay benefits you should not have received.
After 12 Calendar Months	You will not be required to repay any prior benefits, and you will continue receiving benefits from the Pension Plan without interruption.
Want to know when you'll reach the 6- and 12-calendar-month waiting periods?
View or download the comprehensive reemployment tables by visiting MyFRS.com . On the home page, click Retirees > Reemployment After Retirement > Reemployment Tables.

Can I rejoin the FRS after becoming a Pension Plan retiree?

No. Once you are considered a Pension Plan retiree, including DROP, you cannot renew your membership in the FRS, no matter when you return to employment with an FRS-participating employer. This means you will not be eligible to earn any additional benefits under an FRS plan.³

Do these reemployment rules apply if I am hired by a non-FRS employer?

No. Being hired by a private employer or a non-FRS public employer⁴ after becoming a Pension Plan retiree will have no impact on your Pension Plan benefits (except for disability retirement — see below).

Would being rehired affect my FRS disability benefits?

Yes. You cannot receive disability benefits if you are employed. Your FRS disability benefits will be terminated upon returning to work for any employer (includes private, non-FRS, and FRS-participating employers).

¹ This includes work in a temporary, part-time, OPS, substitute, adjunct, or regularly established position, regardless of whether it is an FRS-covered or non-covered position.

² If you are a retired law enforcement officer and you are reemployed as a school resource officer by an FRS-participating employer during calendar months 7 through 12 after your retirement date or after your DROP termination date, you will receive both your salary and retirement benefits.

³ The FRS plans include the Pension Plan, Investment Plan, and other non-integrated defined contribution plans.

⁴ If you are retiring from an employer that no longer offers FRS membership to new employees and you plan to return to employment with this same employer after termination, please call the Division of Retirement at 1-866-446-9377, Option 3, to determine what reemployment restrictions apply.

This publication is a summary of the reemployment provisions for the Florida Retirement System Pension Plan and is not intended to include every program detail. Complete details can be found in Chapter 121, Florida Statutes, the rules of the State Board of Administration of Florida in Title 19 and the Department of Management Services, Division of Retirement, in Chapter 60-S, Florida Administrative Code, and in the Pension Plan Summary Plan Description. In case of a conflict between the information in this publication and the statutes and rules, the provisions of the statutes and rules will control.

(c) <input type="checkbox"/> Single or Married filing separately <input type="checkbox"/> Married filing jointly or Qualifying widow(er) <input type="checkbox"/> Head of household (Check only if you're unmarried and pay more than half the costs of keeping up a home for yourself and a qualifying individual.)

Complete Steps 2–4 ONLY if they apply to you; otherwise, skip to Step 5. See page 2 for more information on each step, who can claim exemption from withholding, when to use the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App, and privacy.

Step 2:
Multiple Jobs
or Spouse Works

Complete this step if you (1) hold more than one job at a time, or (2) are married filing jointly and your spouse also works. The correct amount of withholding depends on income earned from all of these jobs.

Do only one of the following.

(a) Use the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App for most accurate withholding for this step (and Steps 3–4); or
 (b) Use the Multiple Jobs Worksheet on page 3 and enter the result in Step 4(c) below for roughly accurate withholding; or

(c) If there are only two jobs total, you may check this box. Do the same on Form W-4 for the other job. This option is accurate for jobs with similar pay; otherwise, more tax than necessary may be withheld . . . ▶ ☐

TIP: To be accurate, submit a 2022 Form W-4 for all other jobs. If you (or your spouse) have self-employment income, including as an independent contractor, use the estimator.

Complete Steps 3–4(b) on Form W-4 for only ONE of these jobs. Leave those steps blank for the other jobs. (Your withholding will be most accurate if you complete Steps 3–4(b) on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job.)

Step 3: Claim Dependents	If your total income will be $200,000 or less ($400,000 or less if married filing jointly):
	Multiply the number of qualifying children under age 17 by $2,000 ▶ $
	Multiply the number of other dependents by $500 . . . ▶ $
	Add the amounts above and enter the total here	3	$
Step 4 (optional): Other Adjustments	(a) Other income (not from jobs). If you want tax withheld for other income you expect this year that won't have withholding, enter the amount of other income here. This may include interest, dividends, and retirement income	4(a)	$
	(b) Deductions. If you expect to claim deductions other than the standard deduction and want to reduce your withholding, use the Deductions Worksheet on page 3 and enter the result here	4(b)	$
	(c) Extra withholding. Enter any additional tax you want withheld each pay period . . .	4(c)	$

Future Developments

For the latest information about developments related to Form W-4, such as legislation enacted after it was published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW4.

Purpose of Form

Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay. If too little is withheld, you will generally owe tax when you file your tax return and may owe a penalty. If too much is withheld, you will generally be due a refund. Complete a new Form W-4 when changes to your personal or financial situation would change the entries on the form. For more information on withholding and when you must furnish a new Form W-4, see Pub. 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax.

Exemption from withholding. You may claim exemption from withholding for 2022 if you meet both of the following conditions: you had no federal income tax liability in 2021 and you expect to have no federal income tax liability in 2022. You had no federal income tax liability in 2021 if (1) your total tax on line 24 on your 2021 Form 1040 or 1040-SR is zero (or less than the sum of lines 27a, 28, 29, and 30), or (2) you were not required to file a return because your income was below the filing threshold for your correct filing status. If you claim exemption, you will have no income tax withheld from your paycheck and may owe taxes and penalties when you file your 2022 tax return. To claim exemption from withholding, certify that you meet both of the conditions above by writing "Exempt" on Form W-4 in the space below Step 4(c). Then, complete Steps 1(a), 1(b), and 5. Do not complete any other steps. You will need to submit a new Form W-4 by February 15, 2023.

Your privacy. If you prefer to limit information provided in Steps 2 through 4, use the online estimator, which will also increase accuracy.

As an alternative to the estimator: if you have concerns with Step 2(c), you may choose Step 2(b); if you have concerns with Step 4(a), you may enter an additional amount you want withheld per pay period in Step 4(c). If this is the only job in your household, you may instead check the box in Step 2(c), which will increase your withholding and significantly reduce your paycheck (often by thousands of dollars over the year).

When to use the estimator. Consider using the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App if you:

1. Expect to work only part of the year;
2. Have dividend or capital gain income, or are subject to additional taxes, such as Additional Medicare Tax;
3. Have self-employment income (see below); or
4. Prefer the most accurate withholding for multiple job situations.

Self-employment. Generally, you will owe both income and self-employment taxes on any self-employment income you receive separate from the wages you receive as an employee. If you want to pay these taxes through withholding from your wages, use the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App to figure the amount to have withheld.

Nonresident alien. If you're a nonresident alien, see Notice 1392, Supplemental Form W-4 Instructions for Nonresident Aliens, before completing this form.

Specific Instructions

Step 1(c). Check your anticipated filing status. This will determine the standard deduction and tax rates used to compute your withholding.

Step 2. Use this step if you (1) have more than one job at the same time, or (2) are married filing jointly and you and your spouse both work.

Option (a) most accurately calculates the additional tax you need to have withheld, while option (b) does so with a little less accuracy.

If you (and your spouse) have a total of only two jobs, you may instead check the box in option (c). The box must also be checked on the Form W-4 for the other job. If the box is checked, the standard deduction and tax brackets will be cut in half for each job to calculate withholding. This option is roughly accurate for jobs with similar pay; otherwise, more tax than necessary may be withheld, and this extra amount will be larger the greater the difference in pay is between the two jobs.

Multiple jobs. Complete Steps 3 through 4(b) on only one Form W-4. Withholding will be most accurate if you do this on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job.

Step 3. This step provides instructions for determining the amount of the child tax credit and the credit for other dependents that you may be able to claim when you file your tax return. To qualify for the child tax credit, the child must be under age 17 as of December 31, must be your dependent who generally lives with you for more than half the year, and must have the required social security number. You may be able to claim a credit for other dependents for whom a child tax credit can't be claimed, such as an older child or a qualifying relative. For additional eligibility requirements for these credits, see Pub. 501, Dependents, Standard Deduction, and Filing Information. You can also include other tax credits for which you are eligible in this step, such as the foreign tax credit and the education tax credits. To do so, add an estimate of the amount for the year to your credits for dependents and enter the total amount in Step 3. Including these credits will increase your paycheck and reduce the amount of any refund you may receive when you file your tax return.

Step 4 (optional).

Step 4(a). Enter in this step the total of your other estimated income for the year, if any. You shouldn't include income from any jobs or self-employment. If you complete Step 4(a), you likely won't have to make estimated tax payments for that income. If you prefer to pay estimated tax rather than having tax on other income withheld from your paycheck, see Form 1040-ES, Estimated Tax for Individuals.

Step 4(b). Enter in this step the amount from the Deductions Worksheet, line 5, if you expect to claim deductions other than the basic standard deduction on your 2022 tax return and want to reduce your withholding to account for these deductions. This includes both itemized deductions and other deductions such as for student loan interest and IRAs.

Step 4(c). Enter in this step any additional tax you want withheld from your pay each pay period, including any amounts from the Multiple Jobs Worksheet, line 4. Entering an amount here will reduce your paycheck and will either increase your refund or reduce any amount of tax that you owe.

Step 2(b)—Multiple Jobs Worksheet (Keep for your records.)

If you choose the option in Step 2(b) on Form W-4, complete this worksheet (which calculates the total extra tax for all jobs) on only ONE Form W-4. Withholding will be most accurate if you complete the worksheet and enter the result on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job.

Note: If more than one job has annual wages of more than $120,000 or there are more than three jobs, see Pub. 505 for additional tables; or, you can use the online withholding estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App.

- 1 Two jobs. If you have two jobs or you're married filing jointly and you and your spouse each have one job, find the amount from the appropriate table on page 4.
