Parents,

You have the opportunity to return your student(s) to face-to-face instruction on August 10th (Option 1) OR if you are not comfortable sending your student(s) back to the brick and mortar setting you can enroll in our Innovative Learning Program, which is a combination of brick and mortar and working from home (Option 2) OR enroll your student(s) full-time in the Hamilton Virtual Program (Option 3) OR they may choose Homeschool / Private School (Option 4).

Student Name (one form per student)

Date of Birth

Grade Level (2020-21)

Parent/Guardian Name

Phone Number

Choose one of the following options:

_____ Option 1 - Students return to brick and mortar school full-time with additional safety & cleaning protocols in place.

If this option is chosen, will they require bus transportation?

_____ Yes _____ No

_____ Option 2 - Innovative Learning Program – Students will be working in combination from home and school with live instruction and expected to follow a daily schedule provided by a teacher from their assigned school. This option may only be available for the first semester unless further authorization from DOE is given to extend into the second semester.

_____ Option 3 - Hamilton Virtual Program - Parents will be informed of the commitment prior to registration. Students will be registered as a full-time Virtual Program student based on the Hamilton Virtual Program eligibility requirements. The deadline for initial registration is July 31, 2020. Teachers in this option will not be school-based Hamilton County teachers as in Option 2 (Innovative Learning Program). Teachers will be provided through NEFEC. This program is entirely provided online.

_____ Option 4 - Homeschool / Private School - Parents may elect to enroll their student in the Hamilton Homeschool Program instead of returning to a school campus. When choosing this option, parents must complete a registration form in the Federal Programs office located at the district office complex or obtain the form online at hamiltonfl.com. Parents will be informed of the commitment prior to registration. Parents wishing to choose the private school option should contact the private school directly for registration information.
