

DRAWING A BRIDGE

Book Reading and Drawing Activity

What makes people feel connected?
Is it what we look like, or what foods we eat? Where we live, or what books we read?

Connections are all around you, whether it's making a friend or helping someone in need. Do you want to make a connection like the ones in this book? Here are the Crayola colors we used to make it happen, but you can also try different colors. Use your imagination!

 Carnation Pink	 Red Orange	 Chestnut	 Sweet Pea Green
 Goldenrod	 Aquamarine	 Violet	 Black

Think about the different people in your life. Choose one of those people to draw a picture of. In your drawing, share a short story about how you made the connection with that person. Write down what color you choose for your bridge and why. Send a photo to Mr. Joel and we will post it in our online gallery!
